

Curriculum Vitae: Günther Krumpak

Born June 26, 1957, in Vienna, Austria

1976-80 University of Vienna: English and French Linguistics and Literature

1980-83 Assistant to the Commercial Counsellor at the Austrian Embassy, Damascus, Syria

1983-89 Martin Miller GmbH, Vienna: Export and Marketing

1990-97 WEKA-Verlag GmbH, Vienna: Editor-in-chief for special interest magazines (Management, IT)

1998 Project manager for CompuServe, Munich, Germany

1999 Project manager for Salzburg Research, Salzburg, Austria

2000-2003 Head of the IT business dept. with the Austrian Computer Society OCG, Vienna www.ocg.at

2003 - Founding Member of Vienna IT Enterprises VITE www.vite.at

2004 - Head of ITBeurope, Vienna, www.itbeurope.org, IT business consultant, author

2005-2006 Secretary General of Austria's Software Industry Association, Vienna

2006 – 2008 Board member of Content Industries, Vienna www.contentindustries.at

2008 – Co-founder of CEconsult GmbH, Vienna www.ceconsult.at Present activities: Writing and speaking on ICT business & research in Central Europe, consulting, ICT partner search, technology transfer, EU projects, seminars on presentations in English for ICT specialists. Living & working in Prague, Czech Republic.

Languages: German, English, French, Italian (Fluent), Spanish (Rudimentary), Czech (Advanced)

Hobbies: Literature, languages, history, sport, gardening, travelling

Link: Publications, lectures, reviews www.itbeurope.org/krumpak.html